The court has conducted a de novo review of the objections in relation to the pleadings and the applicable law. See FED. R. CIV. P. 72(b). On January 21, 2009, the United States Supreme Court remanded a case to the Ninth Circuit for further consideration in light of United States v. Santos, __ U.S. __, 128 S. Ct. 2020 (2008). Moreland v. United States, __ U.S. __, 120 S. Ct. 997 (2009). Petitioner argues that the Supreme Court’s action indicates that the holding in Santos is not limited to cases involving illegal gambling. Whether the Supreme Court eventually broadens the application of Santos has no bearing on this case. Petitioner may not pursue habeas relief under Section 2241 because his claims do not meet the requirements set forth in Reyes-Requena v. United States, 243 F.3d 893, 904 (5th Cir. 2001). Therefore, after careful consideration, the court concludes the objections are without merit.

ORDER

Accordingly, petitioner's objections are OVERRULED. The findings of fact and conclusions of law of the magistrate judge are correct, and the report of the magistrate judge is ADOPTED. A final judgment will be entered in this case in accordance with the magistrate judge's recommendation.

SIGNED this 7th day of July, 2009.
